

I Bring the Darkness Now 1-8-25@4:50 PM

Darkness descends daughter for 3 Days on the eve of it all. This is the eve of it all, daughter. I have held My hand back until the last one came in. I am now free to move daughter 'cause I am just and I am righteous and I am God. Now daughter... I'm bringing the darkness now daughter. I will not delay it one more moment. Let the scorners mock and let them laugh. I bring it now as in the days of Pharaoh. He was not laughing when I was done, nor will this world be. They think because I have not moved yet, because I have not brought this darkness they can do what they will and I will not bring this judgment because I am love and I am just.

BUT I AM JUST!
AND I AM FAIR!

And all... all...all that I have called to have responded one way or the other. Daughter, I bring the darkness now.

Then I heard Jesus Christ making a noise long and hard that reminded me of some type of thundering command while praying in the Holy Spirit. I couldn't understand it. (Then He began speaking again.)

Father, it's done. My voice has thundered across the world. It's done, it's done, it's done!

And it's time for the scoffers and the mockers and the scorners to be silent. I do not work on man's timetable, I work on My Father's. The Creator of time. I work in time, out of time, around time. I am the Creator of time from My Father's command.

War will not be held back any further. Can you not see it erupting across this world? Look at Israel! Look at the Ukraine! Look at Iran! Look at Iraq! Look at Seoul in South Korea!

Powder kegs! Powder kegs! Powder kegs!

Why? Because I have called forth war. The red horse rides. The white horse rides. The gray horse rides and the black horse rides unchecked.

I bring the darkness for 3 days now, daughter.

Will you be mocking, and scorning, and laughing, and joking, and ridiculing My prophets, My daughters, My servants when the darkness falls oh world? When the outer darkness is unleashed, that's alive that brings the unleashing of all that is evil into your world? Those of Mine who are fully awake and are seeing for themselves... they are seeing for themselves the evil and the cruelness of the kingdom of darkness, of Lucifer's kingdom. What do you think it's going to be like when they are not held in check by Me? By My Holy Spirit?

The last one has made their choice daughter. You know this, you know who I speak of. Now there's nothing left to keep the darkness from coming. I have called out and all that are going to respond have responded. And who will respond inside the darkness will respond.

It's done.

it is finished.

I have spoken it.

I have commanded it.

My Father has commanded it from the beginning of time.

Oreshnik shall fly again daughter, it shall fly again. Hear Me, it is that time and with the awaiting surprise that shall leave Putin stunned he shall follow it with the Sarmat-Satan 2 and then all that's been foretold will begin falling into place like domino's one right after another. As I have commanded it not just only through you daughter but through many of My children.

I begin the burning of this world by My command in the fervor melting of the elements by man's own weapons and technology I allowed to be used against them now. Daughter as I have spoken through you with the plagues that have started coming and will come to full term all over this world as I command through My children, so shall it be with the burning, with the storms, with all these things. Open your eyes children. Is not man's technology from the fallen angels and the nephilim being used against you, the people of this world and its inhabitants? Yes it is.

But oh what a surprise when I reach down with My hand and take control of what man thought they had created. It is I who control what is done and what is allowed here on this earth.

Daughter, many of My children will not be ready because they choose to hold on to bitterness and unforgiveness as if it's a trophy they've earned and have a right to do so. This is a tragedy of it all because I've called out to them all, but few have responded. Now I bring this foretold darkness upon this world. Oh world... oh world you are not prepared for My wrath to come. Oh world...oh world.

Revelation 6:8's pale horse. G5055 chlōros means pale yellowish. When I asked my Lord Jesus Christ about calling the horse grey he led me to study the words and told me to look for a light grey color that has pale yellow to it. That color is called light yellowish grey.
