

My Lovely Jesus Ministry: New Beginnings

For My Bride 7-3-25 @ 8:57 PM...Heather

To My bride, My beautifully adorned bride. I come for you. This day, this night, this hour. Oh you are so beautiful, such a sight to behold. I love you, My children, each one of you. You have done well. No spot, no wrinkle, no blemish.

Oh how beautiful you are. You shine, you radiate with My holy glory. You are such a glorious sight. I cannot say it enough, you are beautiful and I am so proud of you. You obeyed and you listened. You cleaned yourself up. No longer dirty, stained and tattered.

You have walked through the narrow gate; the narrow path you did find. Now you can come and rest. No more fighting, no more pain. No more working and seeing every dollar you earn go to trying to stay afloat. There's none of that here, in paradise. Just enjoy being in My presence. For you deserve it and all the beauties to behold in time. There's so much for you to see, so much to do and learn. It will never get old. You don't have to stress or worry anymore on where the money will come from to put food on the table or wonder how you'll pay rent. No more sickness or suffering.

All is ready. It's time for our wedding feast. Come and enjoy, all of heaven is prepared and waiting for your arrival.

I will see you soon, My beautiful bride. It's just a fraction of a second. It's arrived, it's here. Rejoice and we will be together in a moment's time.

I love you, your Bridegroom Jesus the Christ.
