

I SHALL LAUGH LAST D.K Olukoya Prayer Rain

1 Samuel 17

For those who are subjects of ridicule and would like to have the last laugh over their enemies.

In the story of David versus Goliath, a bad beginning made a good end for the nation of Israel. So a true believer is not running the Christian race as one “beating the air”. While taking cognizance of the rules of the race, you will surely laugh last.

Psalm 126:2 & 2: “When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, the Lord has done great thing for them.”

He who laughs last laughs best, says an old English proverb. Indeed this is true for every child of the living God. The devil might feel that he has you where he wants you with your back against the wall with any hope of salvation dashed. Your enemies might be mocking and ridiculing you. Beloved, as long as you place your complete trust in God, He will perfect that which concerns you. He will begin a great deliverance that will turn around all captivity and put laughter into your mouth.

I don't know what your captivity is or what is making the devil feel he is winning in your life. These prayer points will destroy every bondage, and every garment of shame and reproach will be torn off. The Bible says, Against all hope Abraham believed in hope and he became the father of many nations (Romans 4:18). The name of the promised child was Isaac, which means laughter. When the captivity of barrenness was turned around, Abraham and Sarah laughed (Genesis 21:1-6). God filled their mouths with laughter.

As you use these prayer points every captivity that is causing shame and reproaches well as everything that is causing you to cry, will be destroyed and the Almighty God will fill your mouth with laughter.
