

Seed War (The Parable of the wheat and weeds)

The Holy Spirit has led me to go to the book of Matthew chapter 13 verse 34-43. He had explained the parable of the weeds and what was hidden since the beginning of the world. So let's begin. I will be using the CEB Translation for this one as well

Matthew 13: 34-43 CEB

34. Jesus said all these things to the crowds in parables, and he spoke to them only in parables.

35. This was to fulfill what the prophet spoke: I'll speak in parables; I'll declare what has been hidden since the beginning of the world.

36. Jesus left the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."

37. Jesus replied, "The one who plants the good seed is the Human One.

38. The field is the world. And the good seeds are the followers of the kingdom. But the weeds are the followers of the evil one.

39. The enemy who planted them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the present age. The harvesters are the angels.

40. Just as people gather weeds and burn them in the fire, so it will be at the end of the present age.

41. The Human One will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause people to fall away and all people who sin.

42. He will throw them into a burning furnace. People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth.

43. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father's kingdom. Those who have ears should hear."

So first things first Jesus Christ spoke to the crowd in parables. And that was to fulfill what was prophesied about him by the prophet Asaph. In the book of Psalm chapter 78 verses 2 and 3.

Psalm 78:2-3 CEB

2. I will open my mouth with a proverb. I'll declare riddles from days long gone

3. ones that we've heard and learned about, ones that our ancestors told us.

So when Jesus left the crowds and went into the house that he was currently staying in. His disciples had asked him to explain the parable of the wheat and the weeds. And he had explained to them that the Human One which is Jesus plants the Good seed. And that they follow the Kingdom which is (the wheat.) He also explained that the Devil plants the Bad seed. They are the followers of the evil one which is the (weed.) The world itself is the field in which all seeds are planted. Now let's turn back to the book of Genesis in the beginning. To find out what parable was told since the beginning. We will go to Genesis chapter 3 verse 15.

Genesis 3:15 CEB

15. I will put contempt between you and the woman, between your offspring and hers. They will strike your head, but you will strike at their heels."

This is the exact same parable. Eve's offspring is the seed that God had created. Because He created them they are the wheat. The devil was the snake that deceived Eve and the devil has offspring to which are the weeds.

So throughout the whole Bible God's creation usually starts with a seed. Seeds are what makes trees, grass, plants. Males produce seed which fertilizes eggs in females in both humans and animals. The devil also has a seed and that is satan which is sin. So let me shed some light on this in an example. Here is the example the Holy Spirit gave me John chapter 13 and verses 2 and 27.

John 13:2 and 27 CEB

2. Jesus and his disciples were sharing the evening meal. The devil had already provoked Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to betray Jesus.

27 After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus told him, "What you are about to do, do quickly."

The devil was the provoker, tempter, deceiver that tempted Judas to begin with. That allowed access for satan to enter him and do what he had to do to fulfill scripture on Jesus being betrayed. Also in Matthew chapter 4 verse 1 after Jesus had been baptized the Holy Spirit led him out into the Wilderness so that he might be tempted by the devil here is the scripture for that.

Matthew 4:1 CEB

4 Then the Spirit led Jesus up into the wilderness so that the devil might tempt him.

And in the book of Revelation chapter 12 verse 9. It states that old snake called the devil let's look at the scripture on this one.

Revelation 12:9 CEB

9 So the great dragon was thrown down. The old snake, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world, was thrown down to the earth; and his angels were thrown down with him.

There you have it, the dragon is the same as the snake of old; he deceived Eve in the garden, tempted Judas into betraying Jesus, and also failed at trying to tempt Jesus, In revelation he deceived the whole world. Not satan but the devil they are two different entities it says and satan. Satan is sin and that is the seed that is being planted by the Devil. The parable since the beginning of time is about the devils seed and gods seed.

So at this time the lesson is over if you're not convinced that this conclusion is right. Then the bible gives you away to properly talk to spirits so that you are not deceived. It's called discerning the spirits and it plainly tells you not to believe every spirit you hear but to test them. And you do that by asking just one Question. Simply ask the question you want to know about first. Wait for an answer then Simply ask the Spirit did Jesus Christ come in the Flesh. The Bible states if it professes this then it is of God meaning (yes, he did,). If it says (no, or he did not) then the spirit is not of god. You get the spirit of truth for yes or the spirit of antichrist for no. This is how you will know 100% what spirit you are talking to. Here is the scripture for that 1 John chapter 4 verse 1 and 2 John verse 7.

1 John 4:1-2 CEB

4. Dear friends, don't believe every spirit. Test the spirits to see if they are from God because many false prophets have gone into the world.

2. This is how you know if a spirit comes from God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come as a human is from God

2 John 7 CEB

7. Many deceivers have gone into the world who do not confess that Jesus Christ came as a human being. This kind of person is the deceiver and the antichrist.

If you're still not convinced, ask the spirit if Jesus Christ is its Lord. If yes it has the Holy Spirit. If no it does not and you should probably avoid it. Scripture for that is 1 Corinthians chapter 12 verse 3

1 Corinthians 12:3 CEB

3. So I want to make it clear to you that no one says, "Jesus is cursed!" when speaking by God's Spirit, and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

So there you have it, do not believe every spirit that you hear. If you want more knowledge and wisdom on the matter seek god ask for more on the matter he will give it to you. Here is the scripture for you to do so. James chapter 1 verse 5.

James 1:5 CEB

5 But anyone who needs wisdom should ask God, whose very nature is to give to everyone without a second thought, without keeping score. Wisdom will certainly be given to those who ask.

At this point in the lesson I feel led to ask if any unbeliever would like to accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior and repent of their sins. We are not promised tomorrow either so stop putting this decision off if it's weighing on you it's time. None of us know when we will die or if an accident may occur. That is not fear at all, it is wisdom better to be safe than sorry. All you have to do is confess that Jesus Christ is Lord and believe in your heart that he died and was resurrected. YOU WILL BE SAVED! And at that point repent for your sins Ask For Forgiveness and Help to not commit any more sins in the future. Repent means to turn away from. Here is the scripture for all this too.

Romans 10:9 CEB

9. Because if you confess with your mouth “Jesus is Lord” and in your heart you have faith that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Acts 3:19

19. Change your hearts and lives! Turn back to God so that your sins may be wiped away.

James 4:14

14. You don't really know about tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for only a short while before it vanishes.

The End
