

The Call To The Weary And Burdened

Today the Holy Spirit has lead me to go the book of Matthew chapter 11 verse 28 through 30 CSB translation

Matthew 11:28 CSB

28. "Come to me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

In this verse Jesus Christ was calling for the lost to come to him with their problems. And who were overwhelmed with this world and everyday life and he gave them peace like no other could. A true calming of storms. This is him calling out to all of us that his word still stands for us today as it did back then.

Matthew 11:29 CSB

29. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am lowly and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls

Jesus meant literally but for his later generations like us. He is referring to the Holy Spirit, the teacher he is telling us to take up his yoke, " Be like him, live sin free but repenting when we do." To learn from him, learning from the Holy Spirit is like learning from a teacher at school except he has infinite knowledge and wont mislead you. Ask for a lesson and just listen. He will lead you somewhere in the bible to learn and to apply to your everyday life. You will find peace and reassurance in the lessons that he will teach you.

Matthew 11:30 CSB

30. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

In closing he is assuring you that to follow him is easy the bible is your guidebook with the help from the Holy Spirit. He is your friend, your mentor and he will never leave you or lead you astray. That being said, the part about his burden being light is not really a burden but a request that we profess to others that "Jesus Christ is Lord." If you are shy you do not have to speak to others. Hand out tracks with scriptures in them that tell the same message you are going to profess with your mouth. It's the same thing and sometimes easier he knows your heart and intent. He is trying to win every last soul that he can for his kingdom and he does that through us.
