Concerning the Spiritual Barrier Ice Wall

Vicki Goforth Parnell

Excerpts from a few of the PDF's mentioning the spiritual Barrier wall now covered in ice.

The Soul Hunters & Multiverse Dream 6-7-24 & 7-4-24

I walked around the side of the tree as I heard Sweet Holy Spirit whisper to me. "Daughter of Zion, your presence here will not be seen, known, or detected by those who are speaking or the others who are observing." "Holy Spirit," I responded in surprise, "I see no other people here. Who are the others?" I asked in surprise.

I heard Him say, "Spiritual eyes see past the physical barrier of this realm and into the other, the spirit realm where the evil ones' who fell are separated except for the one permitted here in the Garden of Eden." As he spoke these words it was like scales had fallen from my eyes. I saw beautiful tall, tall beings, some with wings and some in the form of a human. the barrier separating the spirit and Physical Realm was something they could touch and feel although it's invisible in our physical world unless Father God or Jesus Christ allows you to see it I now realized.

These are the fallen angels that were cast out of Heaven after they rebelled against Father God and tried to overthrow Him led by Lucifer, he is called as my KJV English translation of the Holy Bible tells of. The majority who are not watching from the air have their faces and hands pressed against the now visible barrier between the physical and spiritual realm. They appear in the forms of both male, and female. After I recovered from the shock of seeing them, I began asking Holy Spirit my dear friend some of the questions racing through my mind.

"I thought the holy angels, the host of Heaven, were all created male. Why do some of them appear to be female? Why am I hearing two female voices in the garden? Is one of them the serpent's voice I'm hearing?" "Yes," Holy Ghost Spirit replied, "it is an act of rebellion against God the righteous creator of all. When they saw and witnessed the creation of the man Adam, then the first woman Eve to be his wife, his other part to make them complete as one together, the fallen ones began taking on the form of a woman in open rebellion to the Almighty God of Heaven's laws of divine nature."

....She smelled it again then looked at the serpent with a smile then she bit into the fruit. The serpent shouted in triumph, the fallen angels shouted in triumph. And an invisible forcible wave erupted from out of Eve. It rippled out like waves and it felt like our whole world was being shattered when it impacted the now visible barrier.....It was! Sin has just entered our world, the part of our physical realm inside our created firmament.

.....Then He turned to Father God's throne and spoke softly, "Father I shall take her to the spiritual wall barrier and show her the answer now to the scripture verses of Ezekiel 13:18-23 and Revelation 18:13 and what they really means and I will explain to her what the world's deception is about the so-called multiverses as she has sought often in her prayers to know." "Thank you My Son," I heard Father God reply in a voice of love. And the scene changed.

I found myself with Jesus Christ my love sitting upon an enormous ice wall that spanned for as far as my eyes could see. Jesus Christ my love is still dressed the same but I am dressed in heavy snow clothes. Arctic clothing I believe it's called yet I know I'm being protected from the full effects of the cold because my eyebrows and eyelashes aren't iced over. As I knew this should be in reality if not protected by my lovely Jesus Christ. "It's the ice barrier," I spoke first in surprise. "Jesus Christ my love this ice wall goes around our world's land You have shown me, only opening up in two places that mankind cannot enter. Has it always been here? Jesus Christ looked at the very thick, very huge ice wall then replied.

"No daughter it was created by Father's command in part of a prior judgment which also limited the amount of demons, nephilim children, and fallen angels as more had been released that could be on your part of the firmament. But that is for another time, daughter. Look at the ice barrier daughter, the dividing wall between your physical and spiritual and tell me what you see." "Which direction do I look, my love, my king?" I asked as I looked around me.

Suddenly next to me not far on the left side the spiritual barrier once again became visible from where once it had looked like continuing ice. The barrier is now seen. There's cracks, hairline cracks it looks like in some places while other places have a cloudier look to them and appear to be weaker. I can feel some presence of evil in these spots. Jesus Christ looked at me with compassion feeling my pain and then He pointed to the barrier dividing wall and said, "Inside there! Inside the weakened places that appear cloudy to your eyes is where the kingdom of darkness traps the human souls they hunt, trap, trade, and cage. It's through these locations that people are deceived into believing in multiverses with duplicate lives in other locations of the same person. It's called parallel and multiverse universes, but daughter it is not!"

"Those trapped inside are giving false realities. Much like for example some people believe they've been abducted by aliens. While many have been abducted by the demons and fallen ones in reality portraying the fake aliens, those inside the weak spots in the dividing wall are living the false reality as they walk around in life on your earth. When Father's breath was breathed into man life entered. He became a spirit being in a flesh body with the soul. A living soul which makes each person distinct from one another. Your fleshly body was created daughter so your spirit could live on this earth. Your spirit man as your world calls it is what holds your soul and this makes man a living soul."

"This false reality the enemy is feeding the piece of the trapped into like mind that makes a person accept the deception and lies for their lives as a truth instead of what your word tells us?" "It does, daughter," He replied. "It's all because of sin daughter. Sin that originated out of the darkness. For those souls totally caged, their intellect minds controlled by the enemy they will have the ability to do heinous acts without any trace of remorse. Such as the satan worshipers who ritualistically abused, rape, and murder little babies and children. These are not just caged but fully possessed by the enemy. Even in all this sin is the cause and sin is a choice. So daughter there are no parallel or multi-universes, just more deception to try to trap and destroy My children. Then I awoke.

Further explanation from Father God.

Daddy God when you said the cell towers and things would come on before people's electricity this would mean the enemy shuts off the grid at the time so they can control what is turned on first to activate the mutation process.

Yes, little daughter this is correct and those of more demon DNA and the fallen ones will be controlling this. The supernatural barriers retaining the fallen angels, Nephilim and demons who are bound behind them such as those bound in the air shall be removed. This includes beyond the ice walls, the outer deeper waters under this region, in hell and the abyss and its outer pits.

In addition, the releasing of these bound in ice you have seen in the small land mass of Antarctica where humans are allowed to meet the fallen ones in secret and those confined in rocks upon the face of the earth. A terrible time has come to your world little daughter but those who were ready that diligently took time to prepare themselves and Me and My Son shall not be here to see so much woe and wrath.

These Are No longer Human Dream 2-3-24@ 5: 04 AM

“Yes, Daughter of Zion, of Heaven's Court but it's not of alien origin but of the fallen ones, the dark lords as they like to call themselves, their technology. There are not any aliens from outer space but only demons, nephilim, and fallen angels pretending to be them to deceive your whole world. This plan has been set into motion even before the boundary of ice was brought forth.”

“The boundary of ice Rabshevin! What do you mean? Are you referring to the Antarctica? I know many of the fallen ones and nephilim make their abode in Antarctica and underwater. And the number of them that can abide in the world of men is limited until the three days of darkness falls and are released. Is this what you're referring to?”

“Daughter of Zion there is a need to look beyond what you know. Look beyond the limits of man. Look beyond the ice!” “What’s beyond the ice?” I asked Rabshevin seriously. “That Daughter of Zion is a question you will need to ask the Risen Lamb for the answer or the Great I Am, Jehovah God in whom you know.

Trump, Men in Black and the Underground City Dream 2-10-24 6-09am (Shared 2-12-24)

I'm here to warn you Donald J. Trump, President of these divided states of Babylon. If you don't repent, if you don't break your agreement with those who once lived beyond the ice then when you die a horrible, gruesome death at the hands of the enemy for your many evil, ill sown seeds, you endure it all alone. If you repent, Jesus Christ will save you, forgive you, and be with you while you are enduring what has been ordained. He will allow you to fall asleep in his arms through much of the worst to come. You know of much of what I speak of. The choice is yours. Make your decision quickly for soon they come for you and you will not be able to escape because the God of Heaven and His Son Jesus Christ has commanded it and it shall be.”

Polar maps: Captain Cook and the earliest historical charts of the ice edge in the Chukchi Sea

Harry L. Stern

ARTICLE HISTORY Received 11 January 2016; Accepted 6 September 2016

KEYWORDS Captain Cook; sea ice; ice edge; Chukchi Sea

Introduction

On 11 August 1778, Captain James Cook, the pre-eminent explorer of his age, sailed north through Bering Strait with two ships, Resolution and Discovery, in search of the Northwest Passage. Working his way along the coast of Alaska, his progress was halted a week later by 'ice which was as compact as a Wall and seemed to be ten or twelve feet high at least'.¹ This marked Cook's farthest north, at 70°44'N, about 30 km north of Icy Cape. Turning south-west and then west, Cook sailed close to the ice edge for the next 11 days, trying to find an opening to the north. On 29 August, having reached the coast of Siberia at 69°N without finding a break in the ice, he abandoned the search, since 'so little was the prospect of succeeding', but he resolved 'to return to the North in further search of a Passage the ensuing summer'.² He sailed south through Bering Strait on 2 September.

Tragically, Cook was killed in Hawaii in February 1779. Command of the expedition passed to Charles Clerke, who faithfully returned to the Arctic in summer 1779 to continue the search for the Northwest Passage. The ships sailed north through Bering Strait on 6 July, more than a month earlier than the previous year. From 13 to 23 July they traced the ice edge at latitudes 69–70°N, first eastward to the coast of Alaska, then westward part way to Siberia, reaching a farthest north of 70°33'N, just 11 miles south of the previous year and yet a month earlier in the season. But on 21 July Clerke wrote, 'this Sea is now so Choak'd with Ice that a passage I fear is totally out of the question'.³ (This was Clerke's last journal entry. He died a month later from tuberculosis.) On 30 July they sailed south through Bering Strait.

Cook and Clerke had been dutifully executing the 'Secret Instructions' for the voyage issued by the British Admiralty in 1776, the first sentence of which relayed 'His Majesty's Pleasure that an attempt should be made to find out a Northern passage by Sea from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean'.⁴ The motivation for finding such a passage was trade with the Far East. Early expeditions in search of a Northwest Passage (e.g. John Cabot, 1497; Martin Frobisher, 1576; John Davis, 1585; Henry Hudson, 1610; William Baffin, 1616) had approached from the Atlantic side and tried to work westward. The Pacific side was relatively unexplored. Juan de Fuca had reached 48°N along the west coast of
