

Are You Prepared O' World? My Shaking Comes, 6-14-23 @ 9:00 a.m.

I'm here my sweet Jesus, sitting outside as you have requested. "I have somewhat to say to you, oh daughter. Write down My words and share them without fear, for I, your holy God shall protect you from all harm and those you love and hold dear. Write what you see and hear o daughter of Mine and do not hesitate on what you hear." "Yes, Jesus, my love."

"I shake your world. I shake it with holy vengeance. The time is now. I pollute many waters from My shaking. I cause your fountains of water to become contaminated with the ruinous heaps of cities no longer left standing. With a mighty hand and a forcible blow, I rattle the foundations of your Earth. Like a drunkard she shall reel, this Earth I have created. I give you warning to you now. Warn My people. With Judgment's hand I shake this world.

For your sins of pornography, I rock this world. For your sins of child slavery and abuse, I shake the foundation of your world, the Earth. For the sins of adultery and fornication, homosexuality, and bestiality, I shake and rattle your world with My righteous indignation. For the slaughter of the innocent, I poison your waters. What will you drink then O' world, o inhabitants, even before the mighty wormwood descends from the heavens.

For your sins of unforgiveness, hate, murder and strife, I strike My fist with a mighty blow into the Earth's crust. I warned you in My word what would happen if you failed to repent. I warned you by My servants what would come if you did not repent. For your sins of blasphemy, idol worship, deception, lying and witchcraft, I shake this world with a mighty, mighty shaking.

For your sins O' world, for your unrepented sins, especially pride, I shake the very core and foundation of your world, and as I do, mountains shall move, tremble and fall. Land shall divide. Cities shall fall. Do I have your attention O' world? Do you now remember that I, your God and King sit in the heavens ruling as Judge, by My Father's right hand?

Man is full of pride. Prideful hearts are deceived in believing they are superior and cannot do any wrong. My word tells you, "pride comes before a fall." It is the beginning of so many sins. Did you listen O' world? No. Instead you embrace the wiles of the enemy, resisting not one of his seductive lures to draw you into a life of sin. Sin and chaos.

You think your world has been forever changed by a small virus that was allowed to be let loose upon your world that was meant to draw you to a place of true repentance of heart. A place of real sorrow for the sins you have committed against your own selves and Me, your holy God.

I cried, "Come unto Me! Let Me wash you clean. Your sins will lead you down a path of destruction." You raised your fist at Me, toward My heaven, declaring, "No! We are god's ourselves. We can take care of this ourselves." You are forgetting O wicked inhabitants of the Earth, the Earth is mine. The fullness thereof is mine. Dominion is all that is rightfully yours that I gave unto you, My created people, upon Adam's creation in the Garden of Eden. ("Oh, Jesus, help us.")

Little daughter, for mine I shall be their saving King. I will take care of those who have accepted Me into their hearts and those still coming. In addition, for those I am giving mercy to, upon your requests through your prayers to Me.

Islands shall move. Some shall be shaken until they fall into the waters-deep. Waves shall arise up into the sky. Even they know to praise Me and recognize who I am, King of the Earth, King of Heaven, King of all. My children, only a few of mine have I shown the coming of the time of My great shaking of the Earth. But it's soon. Because My judgment's hand has already fallen upon the Earth for man's failure to repent.

To those who will listen, to those with ears to hear, to those who know and have studied My holy word, let your understanding be opened further. This is the shaking of My already open 6th Seal foretold about in the holy book of Revelation, written by John, My servant and disciple of old. Now look daughter, with eyes open. What do you see? What do you hear?

“I hear the great roar of a lion. I hear a deep, deep rumbling inside the Earth. I see all types of birds flying out of trees.” (My vision is traveling quickly from place to place. I see the rocks and pebbles on dry ground begin to shake but there’s nothing around. I hear what sounds like the Earth groaning, somehow. I see mountains begin to move, crumble and fall. Islands fall into the oceans and waters. There’s new islands rising from the waters. I’m seeing what looks like a crack inside an ocean and water is falling down like a waterfall into it.

I hear screaming as cities fall. Vehicles are wrecking. Streets and roads split open. I see smoke rising. Rising up in what appears to be volcanoes. I see continents ripping apart, including mine. I see destruction. Mass destructions. Total cities are leveled. People are dead, wounded, or huddling in terror, yet very few seem to call out to You, Jesus, or to Father God. It’s like the whole Earth, Earth’s prior land formations in most areas are now changed.

There are tsunami waves that hit the lands with a deadly force, as whole cities and lands are struck with many falling into the sea, the waters, as the effects are deadly; and deals a destructive blow to all they touch.” (I watch as part of the land masses of different continents break off from the shaking and some becoming newly formed little islands, while the majority fall and give way into the oceans and waters. It all appears to be happening at one time, even though I realized some things come before the other that I am seeing. I see death. I smell death. Oh, Jesus, please help them.)

“I am the Judge, daughter. The righteous Judge for all. I am a merciful Savior, so I shall extend mercy to whom showed mercy themselves to others. In My mercy I shall take home some of Mine. Others shall endure this horrible time and shall rise up to be My hands and feet. A time of Woe has come upon your world little daughter. For these are the end time days you are living in.

My people hear of one warning of Judgment to come and will begin preparing.” but when hearing of another come, they then stop preparing from the first warning given to address the new. Little children, they are all coming!

You need to be seeking Me to lead you how to prepare for all the coming judgments that are falling. Are you prepared for the plagues to come, including the three days of darkness? Are you prepared for the earthquake, the shaking foretold? Do you have water? Food? Supplies? And enough to share to be fully My hands and feet, My servants to all? Most do not, even after I gave you plenty of time to do so and many warnings to reaffirm to you this is My Judgments coming. I always warn My children of My moving hand of Judgment out of love.

I say one more time to those with listening ears, your water supply shall be greatly polluted. Water shall soon become scarce to find. Food supplies shall diminish quickly, what still remains. Even the underground bunkers stocked high in your storehouses of your government’s, the elites and wealthy, shall not go unscathed. I’m shaking them all. For I see all and know where each underground facility, each complex, each temple, each bunker, each of everything you’ve tried to hide from the common people of your world is located.

Destruction comes. Desolation comes. Death comes. Famine continues as I shake your world O’ inhabitants of this world and sin is the cause of it all. Repent now while few still have time to come. For when I begin shaking this world many will no longer have this chance again. Sin is the cause. Little children of Mine, sin is the cause of it all. The cause of My Judgment’s hand upon your world, the Earth. Sin. Sin is the cause of it all, your unrepented sins.
