

Nimrod Vision 5-14-23 @ 9:11 Pm. Shared 10-16-23

I was praying when I heard in the spirit “something is about to explode in your world” and then I heard “it's Nimrod! Nimrod has been resurrected from the tomb,” and I replied, "what just happened my love? What's going on?"

Jesus was speaking, “From the ashes of the grave, the very tomb they have resurrected the body of Nimrod and pulled his spirit through the Physical Realm. He is alive and fully functioning. Great, great evil, great, great evil has come to your world.”

Then I had this vision: I see, I see a man with a curly, square beard. He has black eye makeup around his eyes but appears somewhat different than how the Egyptians of old wore theirs according to the pictures I have seen. He is tall. A giant of a man. A nephilim I perceived by the fallen angels that surround him and others of both tall and regularized people of stature.

I know somehow they're underground. His hair is black long and curly with some gray running through it. It's more like a hint of gray and it's shoulder length. He's dressed in a tunic-style garment of rich colored gold and an overcoat of purple. Royal Purple with multicolor weavings running vertically throughout the purple of red, white, green and blue.

His eyes are dark in color without any white around his irises... around his pupils. They appear very black and soulless. He's evil!!! I know he is. I see the man, antichrist in a high dollar black italian-made suit I somehow know. He's dressed for business. A white crisp shirt, dark red tie with blue and gold paisley design with little dark blue flowers that match a color in the paisley design. On his feet are black, shiny shoes. I see a dark red man's hanky. I think it's a pocket square. That is what it's called in his left pocket over his heart. If he had one!

He's talking to this tall giant of a man in purple with necklaces adorning his neck. His fingers are also heavily adorned with rings. This giant man in purple is speaking to antichrist.

“It was long foretold that you would rise to power and that lucifer would want my assistance in fulfilling his promised son's rise to power. Do you know what my nickname was by those of peasant standards he asked? Antichrist responded quickly with a charming smooth smile that makes me want to throw up. “Nimrod there have been many rumors the poor would spread but we of the Dark Realm know you are the “Butcher of souls.” This man's bad news.

“Hmmm,” the great Nimrod said with a slight smile then said quickly, the peasants used to call me “the Mad Butcher.” I slaughtered many of them for lesser words than this. My personal favorite was the hunter but it wasn't animals I hunted but people.” Nimrod said with an evil wicked voice.

Antichrist let out a wicked laugh laying his head backwards. He laughed long and hard and then said, “That would be good hunting. I have hunting plans of my own for the filthy Nazarene’s children when I step into full power above ground as well. Nimrod looked at him directly in his eyes and said. “Our time is now. You will have my hand of power behind you and then the vision was gone. Here are the verses
