

Which Do You Love The Most, The World Or Me? 4-27-25 7:26 AM

The time has come. The time has arrived for My children to take flight. Take flight in Me, your Savior and King, as I take you from this evil world. I warn you, for those who let down, for those who have gotten slack. For those waiting for Me to announce again a more pinpointed time of My return, so you can live in your sins and then repent moments before it is to occur. You shall not have any more time or information given. Your fickle hearts have shown through. Repent of your sins while you can and do it now.

I have given signs in My Holy Word and out of it through sons and daughters of Mine.

Did you listen?

Did you seek Me for My truth?

Did you get angry when I, a God of love and mercy, extended My love, granting mercy once again for souls not yet reconciled to Jesus Christ their Lord and Savior to be?

My children watch for the 10 suitcase nukes, in addition to other signs I have given you outside of My Written Word, such as blackouts from the Aurora lights.

Did I not say some places would experience this?

Did I say how far apart they would be, these blackouts and the 3 Days of Darkness? No, but you assumed it would always be the dancing Aurora lights that come with the 3 Days of Darkness.

Did I say that?

(Yes, there will be black outs during the time of the 3 Days of Darkness, some will. And then they will take the lights down. But you can be watching beforehand because He can, my understanding is you're going to see evidence beforehand, too.)

Seek it out, children, for many signs I have given you to watch for, but even in this stay focused on Me. If you keep your relationship maintained with Me, then when you start to look for these things, My peace shall be upon you. You will not become frantic, panicky, and overwhelmed, as many of My children have become.

Children, why are you seeking these answers and how and when to prepare from others, instead of going to the source of all things, which is Me, your Lord and Savior? When you seek Me, you will find Me when you seek Me with your whole heart and not with only part of it. Ask as I have commanded, and you will find and receive. Am I not a God of Truth? Then try these answers, proving these in My Name Jesus Christ, Yeshua HaMashiach.

Hear Me now, children of Mine, your world has entered the time, the hour, for these things to occur with the hour all but spent. It's time for Me to come, yet so many still are not ready. So many are watching and listening for My prophets and prophetesses to reveal again the "when," after Mercy's hand was given. Many are taking the gamble that when the darkness comes, when it descends upon your whole world, inside and out, that then you will repent. Why gamble with your souls' fate? It's eternity. When at any given moment, for your stubbornness and continual rejecting of My Holy Spirit's convicting, that I don't command Him to stop and I turn you over to become of a reprobate mind and a depraved soul.

These shall be those among many others who My return shall take them by surprise.

These are those who have grown tired of watching, tired of staying in a state of preparedness, tired of mercy being granted for the lost, which I came to this world to redeem by My blood and sacrifice.

These are those who confess to love Me, and some do, but choose to point an accusing finger, as they twist the use of My Scripture to justify their actions.

These are the scoffers and doubters.

These are those who reject the true teachings of My Holy Word, for a watered down version of a powerless gospel. I see it all and know all hearts.

My prophets and prophetesses, My sons and daughters in Me: Do not fear their vile words of hypocrisy. Do not fear their bitter words of envy and jealousy. Do not let their strife ways distress you. For they are full of their father, the devil. Instead, stand brave and strong in My Name and the fear of the Lord. Do not fear to speak My truth even if I should choose to do things differently after spoken, because of My love and mercy. I have left examples in My Holy Word how My mercy and love, when called upon by one of My children in earnest petitions can cause such things, to help you understand My divine nature of love. I Am Love; Love Itself. Love that you will never comprehend. My ways are not your ways, your thoughts and ways of justice, true justice are vain and flawed. Mine are not.

So My children, hear Me now. It's time for My Return. As End Time Days progressed, My Father has told Me so My Angels, Our Heavenly Host, could make their preparations to receive you into My Heaven and from the earth. They are now ready. This time has come.

Watch for the signs, children, but remain fully focused on Me. Take care of our relationship first and I shall help make you aware and observant when it's beginning. Trust Me. Trust My Word above anyone or anything else, even on those you trust.

Watch for all the things I have revealed, such as the 10 hidden rogue nuclear devices hidden inside of America, Babylon to Me. Watch the calendar for changing of seasons of noted days and that there must be allowances for alterations by man and the fallen ones activities, and the events that have occurred recorded in My Written Word to give My children understanding in times such as this. But also how I move when My children call upon Me to do so when they're in My will for their lives.

Watch the Moon, but do not worship it. Why worship the created when you can worship its Creator and have a personal relationship with Him? Most of My children haven't studied even this out fully. Because the Moon does not change into two different positions, but four. It's within the quarter of the Moon I shall come.

Watch, I say, and pray. Stay alert and vigilant. Be not as the 5 foolish virgins who were unprepared when the Bridegroom called. The cry went out. You are living inside this time of the Midnight hour, children. Watch, watch, I say for I come quickly and suddenly. And only those awake and full of the oil of the Holy Spirit, embracing My return and not loving this evil world, shall I take with Me. You have been warned, My children. Now the choice is up to you to come with Me or to stay behind. Which do you love the most? The world or Me?
