

1, 2, 3 The Darkness Comes 10-25-25@4:13 PM

The darkness comes in the count of 1, 2, 3, daughter, as I have told you, it would be. Evening tides no longer abide as part of My equation, daughter. It is the moon I have set in the sky and the sun to tell man of the days to come. 1, 2, 3, I say it shall be. Did I not say it was so? The suddenlies of 4 is at the door and man is still playing the guessing games of, "Will it come or will it not? Will He come or will He not?" Instead of crying out to Me in My Name, asking Me for My truth. So many of My own choose to believe these things, if real, will not happen in their lifetime. While others so often determine if it happens, then it will happen, but until then, I'm going to live life to its fullest. Just like in the days of Noah, when he warned of the flood to come as he built the ark in obedience, making the very preparations needed for the animals, his family and himself to survive. He was working obediently while watching and waiting for the rain, which he had never seen before to begin to fall. When it happened, he was not caught unaware because he had been communicating with Me regularly. This is the same with My coming and My warnings of these 4 suddenlies in which 3 shall be launched together in rapid succession, as I have warned all with listening ears.

War between Putin of Russia and Babylon America will not occur until after My 3 days of darkness lifts. I have warned of this, although many are already in the preparation phases, now for war in many places to begin. My children do not have to be caught unaware when I return unless they are not watching for My return. Those who think they are wise in their own eyes, laying in wait in their craftiness for My children, those who try to bleed them dry, as you world says, to gain every piece of information of when these 4 suddenlies are to be, I say again, as I recently said before, "SURPRISE!" 1, 2, 3, surprise again! You didn't see the darkness coming in this way now, did you? I laugh from the heavens at your schemes, plots, and plans. My Father laughs with Me. I command and it is done. As I have said before to My children, look to the heavens of what I have created and quit looking at those things worshiped and created by the fallen ones.

When the darkness comes, it shall be as I have foretold. I give you no more clues. I say, refer back to what I have shared by those who have tested and proved to be Mine. I say, though, to My children, beware of those hidden within, like the witches, human agents, the moles that will offer you friendly advice while speaking lies so they can discern through their years of deceitful training to glean from your words what you yourself do not understand yet. Then lead you down the wrong trail of clues they issue in My holy Name. Again I say, these speak words of truth with subtle hints of deception that few pick up on and notice unless they test and prove everything as My Holy Word says to do. This leaves them, My children, unknowingly with a standing open legal agreement with the kingdom of darkness. I will deal with these that have infiltrated My children's lives inside the 3 days of darkness.

There will be no more tick-tock. The clock is counted down and the last moment of the last second of the day is expiring. Time for Babylon-America to face the fiery fires of the 10 hidden suitcases with the rogue nuclear devices that explode inside our walls, initiating the 4 suddenlies inside your firmament physically. I say to the man of sin, you will not be prepared for the coming 3 days of darkness. The information passed on to you through moles, human agents, will prove misunderstood and incorrect again. Again, I am answering the prayers of My praying children whose strength and power in Me you cannot rival, nor ever will be.

Daughter, he you once thought was a friend but proved not to be, who proclaims to be one of Mine, though he fills My children's ears with so much false doctrine, yet because of his knowledge of the prophetic they run to him. I have reserved a special encounter in the darkness for him. Those like him will see each face of every person they deliberately led astray because of their own selfish greed and loyalty to the real master and it's not me, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach. He and others of the false shall see their end inside the darkness and when it lifts on the 3rd day there will be a new breed of deceivers and false prophets who will lead souls astray for antichrist and lucifer's kingdom. These will be those not considered human. For the witches, warlocks, the moles and human agents of human flesh created by My hands, you shall perish in the 3 days of darkness which will occur before evening shades fully fall.

This is a time of your world's evening shades. Can you not hear Me children whispering to you, "Be ready, I'm on my way? Do you not feel the urgency to be ready and clean for Me, My beautiful bride? Can you not hear the warning bells and trumpet's blasts that judgment time is upon your world? Will you not take one moment and ask Me if this is all My truth? For I can only do nothing but speak truth, for I am truth.

The darkness will descend as I have had written in the noon hour, but I say one more time, this heavenly appointed time shall be at high noon children, I say, high noon of the past. So be prepared for once the 4 suddenlies start, it will be like a speeding train going full speed without any means of slowing down for anything until the darkness lifts and I return for those who are Mine. Then there will be a slight pause before Putin fires his Sarmat 2, his Satan 2 upon the people of Ukraine. I have spoken it, it is to be. You are to share all this word daughter, for I am the Judge just and fair and you My daughter are just delivering what I have spoken to you on My behalf. "I will, my lovely Jesus Christ with your help." "My help is given, daughter."

Take this again to Jesus Christ in prayer.
