

The Plummet Line & Rapture Express Dream 11-1-25@1:11 AM & 5:52 AM

“Jesus Christ, my love, I dreamed again the same dream two times last night. The first time, 1:11 AM & the second at 5:52 AM. This dream reminds me in some ways of the Thanksgiving Dream You gave me on 10-31-22. I have discerned this as well as others that this is from You, my lovely Jesus Christ, and it is to be shared. Holy Ghost Spirit in Jesus Christ's Name, don't let me write one word that's not from my lovely Jesus Christ, I pray and ask in His Name.” “I won't, daughter Zion, now write, please.”

I found myself looking at a string, a very straight string. It's white, but everything else is black. I felt compelled to look down and I saw there was a heavy metal weight with a pointed end on the bottom. I recognized what it was immediately. It's a plumb line, also called a plummet line in the Word of God. They're used to ensure when lining something up next to it that the thing is straight and not crooked. The Holy Bible talks about the plummet line in more than one location where it's held up to Israel and because their ways were evil and crooked, no longer walking in the straight and narrow path of unrighteousness, the path of righteousness, they failed the plumb line test. When this happens, the time of warning from Father God and Jesus Christ is over and judgment begins falling wherein none of the wicked are spared.

I gazed at the plummet line, the plumb line hanging in a straight line with everything around it still black. “Jesus Christ, my love, last night You spoke to me of America and other lands failing the last plumb line test of holiness because of all the evilness and participation in the pagan holiday of Halloween, even many churches. Not long ago You mentioned another plumb line that Israel and the world had failed after the ending of the holy time of the Feast of Trumpets. People all around the world the next day were participating in the Oktoberfest festivals that was celebrated with the core meaning behind it was to honor beer. “How is this related,” I asked out loud? Suddenly I saw a light shine around the bottom of the weighted plummet line. I can tell it's starting to be lowered. I heard my lovely Jesus Christ voice speak. I knew it was His because I recognized it immediately. “Daughter of Mine, yes, this plummet line is connected to what I have shown you and spoke with you about last night. Your world has been judged. Mercy was granted in times past for the 3 days of darkness to be delayed during the season of Purim. During this granted time of mercy, the call went out heavy across your world to repent as warning after warning was sent out to your world out of My great love for its people. Inserted into this time of granted mercy were two plumb lines, although they affected the whole world. One for the land of Israel, I call Mine. The other for America, now Babylon to Me, who once was Mine too. Both nations have failed the plummet line tests. Each nation's heart is wicked and evil, though I love them, still yet, as your Creator.

But the time of warning is over. I shall no longer spare these nations from righteous judgment. Now because judgment was coming and you did not repent, I shall not spare My hand nor hear these people's crying until I have laid out righteous judgment hot, harsh, and heavy and true repentance is found. Now daughter, I showed you by dreams and visions words spoken to you in alone times, how October 3 for Oktoberfest 3 marked the first plumb line for Israel and October 31st for America, Babylon, the judgment foretold for your once great nation is symbolic of the exploding pumpkins you have been seeing. In addition, if repentance had been found, there would have been a lessening of the severity of all that is to befall Babylon. This time has passed. No mercy will be given to wicked, evil Babylon as I unleash My furious fire and anger upon her. Then the whole scene before me lit up. I saw that a nail scarred hand had been holding the plummet line. He let go of it and I looked down to see what it was going to hit. Beneath it was a flat map of the United States. Right before the plumb line weight made contact, the map changed into a huge pumpkin. The plumb line weight made contact with the pumpkin and when it did, it exploded into many, many pieces. "I shall not spare Babylon," He said, "nor Israel." And then the scene changed.

I'm in a room I don't recognize right away, speaking on a cell phone, which is strange because those who know me know, I don't chat or make calls on the phone. To say otherwise of me would be an error. I'm the one speaking. "I don't celebrate Thanksgiving anymore," I said, and then continued. "I have made it clear to all about the pagan origins, even how the first original pilgrims before those on the Mayflower had to eat some of their own to survive. I won't participate in this, so why contact me?" The voice on the other side of the phone was speaking and I could hear what they were saying. "You don't have to participate in the meal, just come for the gathering," the female voice said. "No, I will not participate in any part of it." The voice on the other end of the phone spoke again. "We can move it up to the 16th. Please come be with us." I answered quickly, but still in kindness. "I'm here to do the work of the Lord Jesus Christ, and you're not understanding the situation. I will no longer be available for public meetings after the 14th of November. I'm preparing now for the coming things and will no longer be in this area. I'm sorry. You wanted me to come for a time of fellowshiping. That's not what I'm called to do, I'm called to reach the lost or to help in spiritual warfare. This is neither situation, but even if it was, even if you moved it to the 16th, I would not be able to make it. All speaking engagements will not be booked beyond the 14th." Then the scene changed.

I'm standing outside a hotel and realized this was where I had been when I had spoken on the phone with the person prior. How much time has passed, I'm not sure, but it didn't seem like very much at all. When you're busy working for the Lord Jesus Christ, time seems to fly by fast. I looked down to see a suitcase by my feet. I smiled slightly as I picked it up and looked at the nearby car which I knew I had rented. I'm alone now for this trip. The others who sometimes accompanied me had caught an earlier flight. I looked at my watch and realized it's time for the plane to leave. They had left before dawn to catch the early flight. I heard the smooth sound of an airplane that had taken off. The hotel I knew was close to the airport. I looked into the sky and saw what I knew had to be their plane because it was magnificent and made out of solid gold. On the side of it had the name 'Rapture Express.' I knew I had chosen to stay behind this time and work more while I was still able for our lovely Jesus Christ. I smiled as the plane flew higher and I began walking to the car. Then I noticed something had begun falling from the sky. It's snow, lots of snow, but wait, it's dirty like ash. "This is not regular snow, this is fallout," I exclaimed, "this means the 10 suitcases have already detonated and now the dirty snow has finally fallen back down!" I knew somehow I had nothing to fear of the dirty snow because I was protected by my lovely Jesus Christ. I hurried to the car remembering that dirty snow can fall fast and arrive in about 15 to 30 minutes or can take a longer time because the higher the blast and debris it can cause it to take longer to fall. "Oh Jesus Christ," I exclaimed, "that means Putin's first strike on America won't be far away but will come as a surprise just like the attack on Pearl Harbor was!"

And then I awoke.
