

Woe To Pastors and Such Like, on 6-9-23 @8:23 a.m.

It's going to be a trial by faith, these tribulation days, even for you daughter. It will take faith in Me to get all through to the end. The great mysteries of Mine locked away and sealed until these times, as you see and know, already are no mysteries anymore. Tribulation days increase, daughter, in their speed of things coming. Yes, indeed but also in their manifold horrors for mankind, as hybrid soldiers with enhanced supernatural abilities quickly take control of many lands after I return for My bride and your once great nation falls. The eagle shall soar no more above in the lofty peaks of power but she shall die where she has chosen to feed, with the buzzards.

A time of endurance for My people, My remnant. A time of trusting in Me for survival. A time of desperate hope, for I shall sustain all fully who place their trust, their hope and faith, in Me. Little daughter, it has already begun, the shortening of days as time progresses deeper into the end time days. Whether you believe you are in tribulation days or not, I say to those of lofty prideful hearts and those in fearfulness denying this is the time era that they are living in. Little daughter of Mine, My own people are in denial because they are trying to live with one foot in the world and one foot chasing after Me. This is unacceptable to Me. While others of Mine are so wrapped up in man-made doctrines, or their own interpretations of My holy Word, instead of listening to My Spirit when I try to show them the truth and proof of My Word being fulfilled. Understand this My people, every Word I speak is with power and in all authority given to Me by My Father, Father God. Not one thought, word, jot or tittle of letter is powerless that I give. How long little children, have I in love, warned you of all these things coming? Daughter, even now many still refuse to see the truth of it all. Now they will know. Now they will see. Now they will understand as I shake this world with My mighty hand, where even the earth shall groan and moan, and move out of her natural place. Great travailing for your world is over. I shall weep no more. I shall toil no more. I shall take Mine out of this world after I shake the earth really good. Mountains shall move. Islands shall flee; some will sink as others shall rise. Land shall split. Oceans shall dwindle. And man will try to take credit for what I have done, by their gizmos and gadgetry until they realize they have no control at all. Darkness shall fall in many ways as tribulation days progress even further. My Pastors, Evangelists, Prophets, singers, worship leaders, teachers, and such like who call Me their God, while leading My sheep straight to the slaughter. I see your doings. I see them and I am marking them down in My great books of heaven. You tell of My great love for all and this is true, this part you speak truthfully but then you stop and go no further. You are called to reach the lost and share My gospel. My full gospel. I am love but I am also righteous and holy. Nothing will ever change My love for any man, woman, or child that has been made by My hands but you seem to forget, and forget purposefully, the reason I came to this earth. I came to die for mankind's sins. Your sins. My Pastors, Preachers, Shepherds of every kind, the majority of you are guilty of telling only a half-gospel. A half-truth message of hope. I am a holy God of love above all else but I died for your sins so you could live with Me. Pastors, Shepherds, Evangelists, Teachers, even congregation members, you are spewing a doctrine of devils. I will not allow anyone into heaven who has not accepted Me as their Lord, Redeemer, and Savior. Nor will I accept anyone with sin in their hearts and lives. My Shepherds who are called to protect My sheep but instead fleece them for every dime, or penny, every pence, franc or money they have, your judgment-day-time on earth is NOW here. When you chose to deny that sin is sin, when you told the lost I sent your way that: "You are just fine as you are. Don't worry, God loves you." your hands became covered in blood. Pastors, Shepherds, Lay-members, Prophets, Teachers, leaders of My churches and such like, you have all been called to speak My truth to the lost, hurt, and dying. In your fear of what people might think; in your fear of loosing tithe money; in your fear of loosing members or listeners; in your fear of loosing government support; IN YOUR FEAR, IN YOUR FEAR, IN YOUR FEAR you have caused the death of many of My sheep! REPENT! REPENT! Repent. For those of you who have sold yourself to your enemy, the devil's forces, I take now your fancy cars, vehicles, your dream homes, your adoration. I strip you of your wealth and position. I declare your time has come. You were told to share boldly all My Words. All. Not some. Sin is sin. Adultery is sin. Unforgiveness is sin. Stealing. Lying is sin. Homosexuality is sin. Witchcraft is sin. Rebellion is sin. Fornication is sin. Overeating is sin. Gossiping is sin. Sin is sin. Sin separates you from Me. Tell Me O' foolish Pastors, Evangelists, and such like: people, how can you draw closer to Me or I draw closer to you or your congregation if sin is found in your lives? Sin separates. You are guilty of not revealing sin as sin, so My sacrifice could be shown to them and they could accept Me as their Savior. Many sheep, many people are now sitting inside the church-house walls believing a lie, that they are "okay" in their sinful lives because I love them "just as they are," so they "need not make any changes to their lives or lifestyles." Woe, to you Pastors. Woe, to you Preachers, Teachers, and Evangelists. Woe, to you Prophets, singers, leaders, and lay-members who lead the lost further astray. You have a special place reserved for you in judgment's lake of fire. For all the atrocities you have committed against My sheep, My people. For those who are still able, who haven't fully blasphemed My Holy Spirit, it's time to repent. If not, your fate shall be the same as the others, whose hands are covered with the blood of the lost I sent to them, to lead them to Me. Little daughter, "I'm here, Jesus, my love," no longer shall I wink at such deliberate actions or even ignorance of the truth, My truth. I'm coming for a spotless bride, who's made herself ready in Me. Who is pursuing Me in love, as passionately as I give My love. This will not include the un-repenteds of any kind. You have been warned O' foolish Pastors, Sheep-stealers, Evangelists, Teachers, Prophets, and leaders of this world. I judge righteously and I declare: YOU ARE GUILTY!

To My true bride I say, Come away with Me to My heaven, and share in all I have prepared for you. Oh, fair one, love of Mine. Come away I say, Come away with Me, for all who are found ready when I come. I, Jesus your King, comes for you My true bride, in a few short moments of time.
