

Behold, the Winepress of the Lord 12-26-23 @ 1:50AM

Isaiah 63:3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

Destruction comes from the sky! It comes! It comes, little daughter of Mine.

Devastation, devastation it comes! Little daughter it comes!

Calamities upon calamities, they come little daughter, they come!

Death...he comes. He's here! He's here! My destroyer is here.

And still not many have repented of their sins in My name. I am the Judge of all. I judge righteously. My judgment is honest. My judgment is pure. My judgment is true.

You were warned. All were warned, but these warnings have been rejected. Now I shall reject you.

Little daughter of Mine, chaos comes! It comes! Chaos comes to America now known to Me as Babylon the great whore who turned the heads of so many other nations. And you taught them to follow other gods and to offer strange fire towards the heavens.....My heavens!!!

In the end, your false gods shall fall. You will soon learn the power behind them are the angels who fell and the demons' resigned to hell's fire.

Cry aloud to them O' Babylon. Let them save you out of My destructive hand!

Mercy, I give to those who are Mine and those yet to come. But mercy is now moved from those who have chosen to reject mercy's call.

A twisting, a turning from the inside out. I wring you like a rag being removed of water.

The time of the winepress has come to your world little daughter, and I shall begin the reaping by coming for those who are Mine. Then I shall tread upon those in the wine vats, the winepress without mercy.

It's time for your reaping O' world. It's time for your reaping too O' Babylon, harlot bride of Mine, wife of Mine you were. As Gomer was to Hosea you have become to Me. But Gomer was redeemed back by Hosea because she showed sorrowfulness of heart over her transgressions and defilement of her marriage bed of the many lovers she took although she was wed to Hosea. Once he redeemed her the last time, she remained an adulteress no more.

Babylon you would have done well to have paid attention to the fate of Gomer. You have refused to repent, to lay down your sins and wicked ways and return to Me your loving Savior.

Now your lovers shall descend on you from every side and rip you apart. From every direction I have called them to come, and they have answered Me. They have obeyed My command.

Destruction comes! Mayhem, chaos comes! Devastation, hardships, slavery, and confinement comes. Just rewards for your unfaithful hearts. I loved you Babylon, people within. I still do, and ever shall. But sin has its consequences.

You have slept with and created strange flesh. You embraced the ways of the fallen ones.

I see it all, your deals and bargaining in the shadows and behind closed doors. I see it all! There's nowhere you can hide. I see each and every gathering, I hear every plot and lie!

You think you have outsmarted My Father and Me. My Father sits and laughs at your very small plans O' world, O' fallen ones too.

Little daughter, the time has come to put away your grieving clothes. You cannot revive Babylon. She will fall to never rise anymore! But those inside her who turn to Me and finally bend their knees in true repentance I shall extend My mercy, for those shall be Mine.

Destruction has arrived little daughter.

Devastation has arrived.

Chaos has arrived.

Calamities have arrived.

Death has arrived!

But who knows which will descend first?.....I do.
