

3 Moons & 3 Moons Dream 9-12-24@6:21 PM

Dear Jesus Christ, I dreamed this morning but I didn't write it down. It was showing me the power of Your Name and its effectiveness upon the enemy. I laid down for a nap feeling tired in my body from all the spiritual warfare. I dreamed again. After praying about it in Your Name my love and trying and testing it as Your Word says. I know it's from You.

I asked now Sweet Holy Spirit do not let me write one word that's not from Jesus Christ or Father God in Jesus Christ's Name. Bring it all to my memory sweet friend Holy Spirit as the Holy Word of God says You will do in John 14:26. I'm standing firm in Your Holy Word Jesus Christ and Father God. These verses in particular Philippians 2: 9-11; John 14:13-14; and Jeremiah 33:3.

I went into this dream hearing a familiar tune being hummed. It's our nation America's national anthem, the Star-Spangled banner. It's dark! I can see nothing as I hear the little humming of this anthem being hummed. Then I begin hearing a voice singing it. A man's pleasant voice. "O' say can you see by the dawn's early light," he sings.

As the singer continues to sing I'm still seeing nothing but the pitch blackness all around. Suddenly the man's voice became louder and his voice took on a harsh almost cruel sound as he sang this part of the Star-Spangled banner. "And the rockets red glare the bombs bursting in air." As these words are being sung suddenly the blackness is lit up with a huge bright light. It forms into a mushroom type cloud which lights up the area once hidden in the darkness. Below it is New York's Manhattan.

Then suddenly the scene changed and I found myself looking up into a night sky. There are three moons in a row. "Three moons," I cried out, "what does it mean?" I watched as the three moons began coming together to form only one moon in the sky. "Three moons, three nights counted as one," I heard from the sky.

So now I'm seeing only one moon in the sky. "Hmm," I said to myself and asked. "How can three moons or three nights be counted as one unless somehow it is seen for three times but counted as one single day and night?" As I look at the last moon in the sky it fades from my view, yet I can see a trace of its outline. So it's still there, I determined but I'm not able to see it.

Maybe they were seeable to me at first so that when I was no longer able to see the final one except its faint outer edge I would know how many there were at the beginning. Which were the three moons counted as one. I'm still looking up at the sky with the almost totally transparent moon and the twinkling stars when I asked out loud, "What does it all mean?"

"Look, watch, and learn." I heard the same voice speak to me from the night sky above. Suddenly the three big moons reappeared. I heard, "Three moons till darkness. When the final moon has arrived so does the destroyer and he will be unleashed upon this evil wicked world."

"Three moons daughter, three moons that appear as one. Not once but twice at times. Such as is found in some years due to the mishandling of the calendar of days I created for man. Which gave them the correct seasons and times for all things to be done and completed."

As I continued to watch I noticed now one moon has disappeared. "What happened to one of the moons? I see only two now." I heard the voice again from the sky say, "A time of transition is occurring and when the three moons countdown to one, and one only remains to be seen in the sky, yet not seen at all by naked eyes, again three that is counted as one the second time, then daughter you will have arrived at the time of the destroyer upon your world."

"The space in between your three moons to three moons is when those things you and others have warned shall begin." "Such as what things?" I asked out loud to the voice in the sky.

Suddenly I saw the mushroom cloud from the start of the dream over Manhattan again. Then flashed before me were the tables I had seen in other dreams where the suitcase nukes with the rogue nuclear devices had been shown to me that's hidden inside my nation of America. Next the night sky reappeared and colors, beautiful colors, started dancing before me. The sky was brightly lit up with all the colors then suddenly everything went dark. Darker than before.

As I watched I saw suddenly as if the sun was beginning to rise with bright streaks of lights from various places shooting up into the air. Just after a loud sound of a horn, a trumpet blast was heard. "Whoa," I said as suddenly everything vanished and the night sky reappeared along with the original three moons in the sky. I heard these words then spoken.

"Those who have ears to hear and a heart that desires to know and understand you have three moons till darkness. Yes, but you have three moons that lead to three moons. Each counted as one day of three seen moons with the final transitioning from the old to new. A new beginning, a new start as the old passes away and expires both physically and spiritually."

"These things I have shown you, their time is now here on Earth and no longer only assigned to be in Heaven. Be prepared daughter, be prepared. All you need to do is seek Me Jesus Christ and My truth and all will be clear. It starts with this," the voice of My Lord Jesus Christ said from the sky.

And immediately I'm back at the beginning of the dream hearing the Star-Spangled banner being sung with the mushroom cloud forming over New York. Only this time I saw more. I watched as one by one all 10 of the hidden suitcase nukes go off in the United States. As each one would erupt I would see the state name and area where the detonation had lit up the darkness. Some were spread apart and some were close together. All in all combining them together it felt like only a few moments in time had passed.

Then again my lovely Jesus Christ said from the sky. "Daughter, it starts with the hidden suitcase nuclear devices which arrives after the first three moons which are seen as one day or one night that has come. So look for what is still yet to come for the time of My destroyer to be unleashed. It's here daughter, it's all here. Then I awoke.
