

The 4 Link Chain of Suddenlies Dream 11-24-24@2:58 2:58 AM

This dream begins with me seeing a very large heavy chain stretched out in a straight line. It is made of strong metal I determined and has a black background behind it. I'm staring at it thoughtfully. I know somehow I am to study the chain more closely. I walked up to it and as I did I began to realize this is one very large, gigantic chain. There are links to the chain that appear as I draw closer to it. Even though at a distance it looked like a regular linked chain of many links. As I draw closer I can see each link has a number. They are numbered in order from one to four.

Suddenly above them in bold white letters comes these words. "The Suddenlies, 4 of the Suddenlies are here. All separate events but all the same with each the same beginning which is link number 1. Chain link number 1 is the start of all 4 Suddenlies upon your world." The words had begun scrolling upward as I'm reading them out loud. They continued. "Is not the last being number 4 also part of number 1? The 4 are interlocked. They are entertained. They are one and the same....one chain yet they are 4 different links in the same chain." The words continued scrolling upward until they all disappeared leaving only the 4 linked gigantic metal chain and the black background before me. I looked at the chain and said, "I understand now that when the first chain link begins it also is considered the start of the 2nd, the 3rd, and the 4th, but what are they? Which events am I seeing? What Suddenlies are these 4 chain links linked together representing?" I asked out loud. Again the same white letters appeared but with different words. It read, "To find out, touch a link of chain. It will be self explanatory." I watched as these words also scrolled out of sight. "Hmm," I said thoughtfully, "if they're all connected and the first link, chain link number 1 is the start of them I should start with it first."

I reached over and touched the massive chain marked number one and immediately before my eyes I saw the face of Vladimir Putin. He is speaking in russian. Before him is a screen, a huge screen and on the screen displayed is a black and white map that says Ukraine. There is a bright red X marking the northern region. A little past the center it appears where the X is marking. I see nothing else but a body of water on the map near the north of the area with the X. Around the Red X is a red circle. There are Russian words that I can read. They say, "Projected Nuclear Target Region." I looked at the words in horror then turned to look at Putin once again. This time when he spoke I understood him. I'm not certain but it seemed like he was speaking to someone else possibly in some type of communication other than by person. He spoke only one word. "Fire!" I felt drawn to look away and back at the black and white map still being displayed. After what seems and eternity but I knew was only a short amount of time a mushroom type cloud forms near the X. I heard many screams in the spirit realm then they went silent. "Oh Jesus Christ, no," I cried out. Then I heard a voice say. "This is what chain link one contains. This is your world's first suddenlies that brings the suddenlies crashing down upon Babylon." Now again before my eyes is the single 4 Link chain and the black background. Once again white bold words begin scrolling above the extended chain before me. It reads, "Chain link number one. The start of it all. Vladimir Putin fires upon Ukraine using nuclear power." I stood stunned for a moment then felt strongly compelled to go to the second link of the chain. I held my hand out then hesitated. The same voice I heard prior said softly, "Do not hesitate. You know these things are to come. You are a watchman on the wall. Please proceed so you can warn in the King of all, Yeshua Ha' Maschiach also known as Jesus Christ's Name." I then laid my hand upon the second chain link after hearing these words. No matter what happens I know Jesus Christ has got me in His hands. Upon contact of the second link there before my eyes came pictures of the black suitcase rogue, nuclear devices I have seen so often in dreams and visions. These are hidden throughout the United States or Babylon of old and new as Jesus Christ my Love calls this nation now. I count them, there are still 10 in their number. I see again the hands of different people with remotes in their hands.

I realize now many times when God's children are given a dream or vision we can see it in advance. At different stages as it happens in the spirit realm before coming fully to fruition in the physical. Just like John saw all of the book of Revelation as it was occurring but in the spiritual first before it came fully into being in our physical world. Now I'm seeing the map again of the United States although this time I see X's on the region or general area that the individual suitcase nukes are hidden in my understanding which are now set to go off. In addition I see two X's that are marked over. I count the X's on the US map. There are 10 with bright red X's. Under these 10 now appear to be dirty snow everywhere with mushroom clouds expanding upward into the air above the United States map. But not for the two that have been marked over in black. There were 12 suitcases in the beginning but now only 10 go off. "The suitcase nukes are next!" I exclaimed. I heard a voice speak, the same one as before. "The nuclear attack upon Ukraine is the start of these chain of events. One is linked to another until all four have expired. This is your second suddenlies out of four that makes up in actuality one suddenlies of many to be cast upon your unholy nation. The second suddenlies is the nuclear hidden rogue devices in the suitcases."

Upon hearing these words from the Heavens out loud I am again taken back to the spread out chain with the black background. I know I am to touch all four so I walk over to the third without having to be told and touch it quickly. Suddenly I see bursts of colors everywhere. I am outside somewhere and displayed before me are beautiful but deadly colorful auroras. The dancing lights' brilliant colors of blues, greens, oranges, and lots of pink and red wherever I'm at. It's beautiful. Then I felt myself being lifted up and I'm looking down upon our world from the Heavens. What we call space. The natural sun is to my left. The Earth's form is not as we were educated to believe. From where I'm at in the Heavens I can see the colorful lights are covering our whole world of continents. "It's the aurora's, the colorful dancing lights. They're covering the whole world. That means that three days of darkness is coming." All of a sudden I see what looks like power outages. Either that or the power sources are being cut. I heard the same voice speak to me from further above where I'm at. "The third chain link is the colorful lights, the auroras to come. See now how each event is interlocked and intertwined? The aurora lights are chain number three, the third suddenlies inside the four that make up the one suddenlies."

Immediately I found myself back in front of the four link, huge chain. My hand is still up on the third link. I removed it quickly and stood staring at the chain for a moment. I knew I had to still touch the fourth chain. I know it's the three days of darkness. I have felt the darkness twice now being allowed to feel it to understand more what I'm warning about. But it's not something I wanted to experience again unless Jesus Christ my Lord deems it necessary. So I hesitate for a moment again. This time no white bold words came. I heard a soft voice beside me say, "Daughter, don't worry. I will go with you into the darkness so you don't have to go alone." I turned toward the voice of Him whom my soul loves. I know it's Jesus Christ my love. Yes there He is dressed totally in white. His bronze like skin glowing, His whole body radiates the glory of Father God. He is holy. Yet I know He is holding back from the full glory that surrounds Him once again from causing me to lose my strength while also giving me strength. Otherwise I would once again be laying face down before His holy presence. His white hair is slightly flowing around Him. His holy blue eyes appear more like fire with very little blue showing. His beard is white and so is His mustache. He's beautiful to me. He's holy.

Tears of joy and relief fill my eyes. He held out his arms to me as He said, "Little daughter it's okay, I'm here with you." With tears flowing I ran into His arms. As He holds me like a parent holding His beloved child He spoke gently to me. "The darkness which comes from the outer darkness below was not meant for My children to endure. I have allowed you these brief moments so you can understand more fully what's coming. It's the same as when I took you to see hell so you would have a more passionate desire to reach the lost. I am here, My daughter and I need you to finish discovering the suddenlies that I'm showing you here and now. As you enter each one of the chain links it brings understanding to many of those seeking the same answers to me any of the same questions," He said softly. I wiped my eyes with my hands and said, "I understand." "I know you do," He replied. "Come now daughter, there's something I want to show you in the 3 days of darkness as well." I let go of Him reluctantly where I've been holding desperately to Him. He smiled at me and extended His left hand to me. I took it quickly. "Now daughter with your other hand touch the fourth and last chain link in the series of suddenlies," He commanded me in a voice of love. I reached over with my left hand and touched the fourth chain link.

Suddenly I found myself inside the darkness. It's alive! I can feel it but above all else I feel my Savior's hand securely holding mine. It's pitch black. Suddenly light erupts and it's my lovely Jesus Christ beside me. I noticed the same light but only smaller coming from inside me. My mouth dropped open in surprise and joy at the same time. Joy and that there was light inside the darkness coming from my lovely Jesus Christ but surprised that though in a smaller amount it was radiating out of me too... His light. He smiled at me and said, "Does not My Holy Word tell you daughter I am the Light of the world and that when you accept Me into your heart that you too become the light?" "Well yes, yes it does Jesus Christ my love," I said, stuttering a little as I spoke, "but I've never seen it with my own eyes before. I finally managed to say in a clear sentence. He smiled again at me with love, kindness, and patience in His eyes. "Now you have daughter. There are many things," He said quickly, "that have not been discussed about the 3 days of darkness which is indeed the fourth chain link of suddenlies." "I'm listening," I replied back to my Savior, listening intently to His every word. Oh how I love Him." He looked at me and said softly, "Beloved little daughter I love you too."

We stood together inside the outer darkness but this time I was protected by him. Then He begins speaking. "Daughter, I am the Light of this world in more ways than just salvation for the soul. I am the Light. The 3 days of darkness covers the whole world inside and out. No place is left untouched! It is because My children have accepted Me into their hearts as a Lord and Savior and I am the Light, they too have become the light to this world. This is why you see My light coming out of your own self. It is because you are children of the light, of Me, it is possible for you to have light during the times of darkness when the rest of the world will not." "By having My spiritual light inside you, by having Me inside you it makes possible for the physical light to shine and be seen. It is possible for My children to see the light whether it be candle light or the lighting of your home supernaturally. Which both are supernaturally done by My command because I'm the light source for your world. It would not be possible for any light to be seen by any being, any person if they did not have Me inside their heart."

"Daughter I then give the physical light, because of this to be seen for those of your family not ready in me. For those in other locations you My children find yourselves in during the darkness so that they are able to see the light I provide for My children. Many will come to Me during this time. I will reach out to all My Holy Spirit is calling out to and drawing them to Me, to accept Me into their hearts in true repentance. Even some of My own who have lived as an unfaithful child to Me trying to serve Me while living in the world. Not all but some. This is what light does, it draws you to it, pulling your way and out of the dark," Jesus Christ said passionately." "I understand," I said quickly then continued. "Jesus Christ is our having supernatural lighting of our homes versus the supernatural lighting symbolic of the condition of our hearts? The dimmer candlelight received by those not fully ready in You compared to those who shall have their whole location lit up without a flame or power source other than You. Their lights are brighter because You shine brighter in them because they have a holy life in You." He looked at me intently and said, "For most, yes but there are exceptions to this. Not all who are the spiritual head of a household may not be fully ready in Me causing the household to be in candlelight even though other members are fully ready in Me." "Then what happens in this situation? I ask quickly. He smiled at me again then spoke. "Though they find themselves in candlelight they should still see greater, with a greater light who are ready in Me. They will not be hampered by the dimness of the candle light. They will see through the light inside them which is Me even though it takes a candlelight for those not fully ready to see anything." "Jesus Christ Your love is so great for us, Your children," I said in a low voice. "It is daughter and it's more than you can currently comprehend."

"Jesus Christ what happens if one of your children finds himself in a location with a nephilim or a demon possessed person? Can they physically attack us inside? What about the demon or demons inside a person whose inside? Could they rise up and attack someone too?" "No daughter, not physically for those inside a lighted area of candlelight or full household by supernatural lighting those people that are demon possessed will find themselves being more tormented than ever before if My Holy Spirit is not drawing them to repent during this time," He said quickly. "The light will restrain them because it's supernaturally given by Me. I am the light source for My children." "I thank you my love for this," I said happily. Then in a more serious tone I asked, "What about a nephilim or any enemy that's inside a lighted location, what happens then?" "That is a good question daughter," He replied as we stood inside the darkness with His light protecting us. Then he begins speaking. "Every person has a choice. My Holy Spirit will be dealing with people inside the darkness through many ways. But also there will be households and other locations where inside will be found the enemy that has professed to know Me but isn't really Mine. Many of these, especially in family households through manipulation and other means than physical attacks, shall persuade many of My children that it's ordinary darkness, that they've heard about it and it shall lift, and all will be fine. These are those found in candlelight because those ready in Me would seek Me and ask Me about the darkness that has fallen if they were not warned of it prior to its falling on your world."

"Others will say it's some kind of weapon, yes daughter, some will say the eerie, evil darkness is a weapon even though My children may sense this is not right, but accept it through logical deductions and manipulative persuasion of the enemy within their families or at other locations. Most will not realize that 3 days of darkness was worldwide until after it lifts. This is also part of the world's alien agenda cover up that will be presented concerning many of My children ready and Me who vanishes off your world when I return for them. Adding to this deception is the acts of different governments who shut down their power sources and grids at different times before the three days of darkness fully descends and falls across your world. Leading some to think it's not worldwide because upon their checking some had lights still, while others did not. Do not forget daughter," my lovely Jesus Christ continued, "most households, businesses, churches, locations everywhere have lying within them an enemy within its doors. They will be bound by the presence of My light whether it's candle light or full lighting to where physical attacks cannot occur upon My children. But your real warfare is in the realm of the spirit world. This is where they can still attack from without calling forth any more demon spirits to aid them. They will use the ones possessing them already that they are loyal to. So most will be facing in these situations the deceptive powers of manipulation and control. This is also due to those that have an agreement hidden or known with the kingdom of darkness through their attachment to My children. This is the spiritual witchcraft they're operating in. Many of My children are still unwise to the ways of the devil."

"For example many did not seek me if their choice of spouse was who I had created for them causing many to marry the enemy in reality. Or simply being unequally yoked with an unbeliever who is controlled by the enemy. Through these means and others many will be left behind and make up My remnant, My tribulation saints. Remember daughter I warned all to get rooted and grounded in Me. To focus on Me and to learn how to discern by My Holy Word proving what is from Me or what is from the devil. Again it was their choice to do so or not. Now the darkness is here. This is the fourth link in the chain. It is the fourth suddenlies coming inside the one series of events of the suddenlies. This series of Suddenlies daughter is as I have revealed to you.

1. Putin's use of nuclear power on Ukraine.
2. The ten suitcase nukes go off in Babylon.
3. The aurora's come.
4. The three days of darkness descends.

It's one big event, daughter. It all goes together. It's all intertwined. It is all one event in My eyes," Jesus Christ finished speaking. "So it's one big event even though it doesn't all happen at one time," I said quickly. "Yes daughter," He replied, "it's an interlocking chain event. Once it starts it does not end. It is the suddenlies! They will have begun. I have warned of this too, the coming of the suddenlies upon your world. They're here already but now it's time for the fruition of their manifestation." After these words from my lovely Jesus Christ I found myself again looking at the four link chain with the black background. It's sturdy built. I saw no lines on the links of all four of them that showed evidence of them being put together. They appeared to all be made together as one piece with each piece appearing to be seamless to my eyes. I said quickly, "It's all one chain, one event with four parts to it. And the first part, the first link is to start now." Then I work with a start.

"Jesus Christ is the darkness for three days coming now? Is it the time?" "Daughter read Isaiah 60, verse 1-2 and let My Word speak to you." "Okay my love."

Isaiah 60:1-2

1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
